

JCCI and Kramer Levin Naftalis & Frankel LLP Present: “ Immigration ” Breakfast Law Seminar

What You Need Know: Winning Strategies for Securing Employment Visas & Protecting your Company from Audits and Investigations

About: Please join JCCI and leading lawyers from Kramer Levin’s Business Immigration Group for a seminar covering immigration law trends under the current Administration and successful strategies for managing visa issues and options. The panel will outline visa options for employees on rotation and dealing with visa status for family members at its conclusion. The expert panelists will review E, L, H-1B, J-1, B-1 in lieu of H-1B and H-3 visas categories and pros and cons of each, as well as discuss the latest developments at US consulates in Japan and consulates around the world. The panel will further outline the significant surge of I-9 and H-1B audits and requests for additional evidence.

セミナーの概要: JCCIはクレマー・レビン法律事務所のご協力をいただきまして、移民法のセミナーを開催いたします。B-1, H-1B, L-1, E-2, O-1, F-1, J-1 ビザなどの雇用ビザを中心に、移民法の現状や動向を経験豊富な専門弁護士が解説いたします。またそれぞれの雇用ビザに関する利点や弱点、日本におけるUS領事館のビザ発行状況など皆様が知っておくべき情報を提供すると共に、最近急増しているI-9とH-1Bビザ保有者の監査、追徴書類の提出義務など詳細にわたり実務的レベルでご説明いたします。

< Presenters >

Matthew S. Dunn, one of the country’s leading immigration lawyers, advises and represents a diverse group of clients, including banks, global financial services companies, technology and business consultancies, advertising agencies, health care institutions, sports and entertainment organizations, and corporations of all sizes. Mr. Dunn works with these companies and organizations to develop the optimal workforce planning and mobility strategies to meet their specific national or global needs, advising them on navigating the complex and often restrictive framework of immigration laws and policies in the U.S. He provides immigration counsel to corporations in the context of mergers, acquisitions and spinoffs to strategize and to structure these transactions to ensure compliance with U.S. immigration law.

Hiroaki Nishikawara advises clients on a full range of employment-based and general business immigration law matters, in particular the hiring, transfer and retention of foreign talent. Hiro’s work includes obtaining non-immigrant work visas, temporary work authorizations and employment-based permanent residence status for employees. He also advises on family-sponsored visas and naturalizations, as well non routine matters, such as the immigration consequences of criminal convictions, responding to Requests for Evidence, Notices of Intent to Deny or Revoke, Department of Labor audits, and appeals before the Administrative Appeals Office of the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Service.

Jennifer Raiola Danzo advises and represents multinational corporations, foreign investors, law firms and major arts organizations, on a broad spectrum of employment-based and general business immigration law matters. Ms. Danzo has worked in immigration law for more than 20 years. Among her most notable work, she has counseled major museums on immigration strategy and compliance, as well as obtained employment-based visas for foreign talent involved in leading exhibitions. She has advised European and American fashion and luxury brands on business immigration issues, including obtaining work authorization for their executives, managers and top designers. Ms. Danzo has also represented multinational corporations seeking E-2 (treaty investor) and E-1 (treaty trader) visas.

Immigration Law Seminar:

Date & Time: Thursday, June 18, 9:00 am - 10:30 am

Location: Nippon Club (145 West 57th Street, New York) 2F Rose Room

Fees: $30 (Member) $50 (Non-Member) including breakfast.

Company: _____ Number Attending: _____

Name: _____ Title: _____

E-mail: _____ TEL _____