

JCCI, Greenberg Traurig, LLP and Florence Rostami Law, LLC present a special talk:

Rudolph Giuliani

“Principles of Leadership”

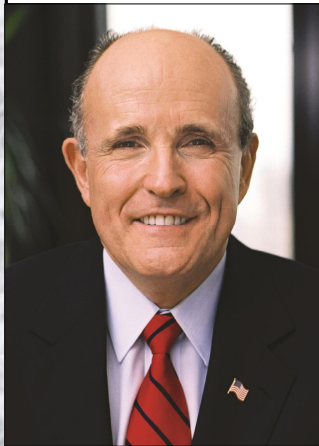

Rudolph W. Giuliani will address the principles of leadership that have guided him throughout his career. He will share lessons learned from his experiences serving in the Justice Department, as U.S. Attorney, his two terms as Mayor of New York City, in the wake of the September 11, 2001 terrorist attacks, and today. His management and decision making skills have proven to be outstanding and hold true in today's global world.

 Please note: this talk will be given off the record; video / audio recording not permitted.*

Rudolph Giuliani

Former New York City Mayor Rudolph W. Giuliani serves as Chair of the Cybersecurity, Privacy and Crisis Management Practice at Greenberg Traurig. He is also the founder of Giuliani Partners, a leading professional services firm in emergency preparedness, public safety, leadership during crises, and financial management.

Rudy gained notoriety as Mayor of New York City from 1994-2001. His leadership in the wake of the September 11, 2001 terrorist attacks has been hailed by world figures. Prior to becoming Mayor, Rudy served as U.S. Attorney for the Southern District of NY from 1983-1989. In 1981, President Reagan appointed Rudy to the post of Associate Attorney General, the third highest position in the Department of Justice. Rudy has also handled numerous high profile trial matters during his career, including landmark cases as U.S. Attorney and arguments before the U.S. Supreme Court. He continues to handle high level litigation matters and recently was retained by a major public company for which he scored a complete victory. Rudy served as the Vice-Chairman of the Donald J. Trump Presidential Transition Team. He leads a group of private sector representatives who share information about cyber security with President Trump and the Administration.
